

1

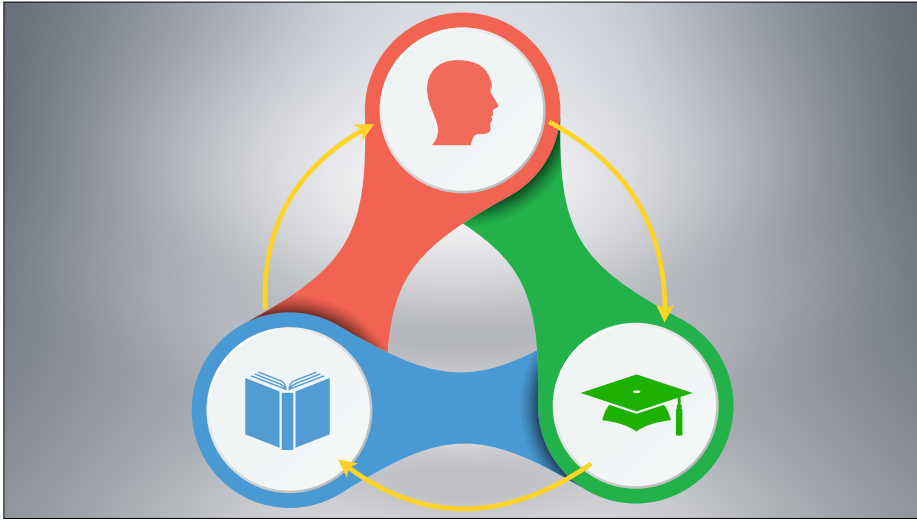

2

3

4

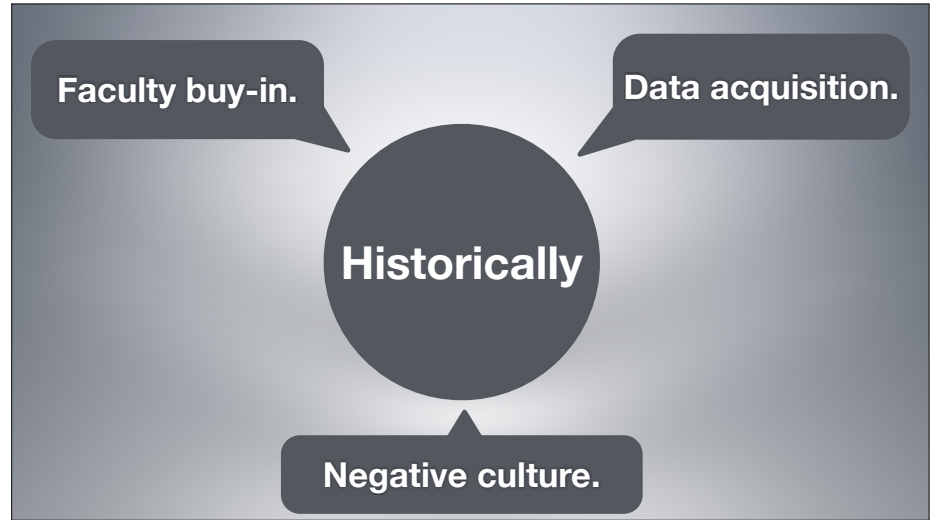

5

What is not assessment?

6

7

8

Authentic dialogue.

9

What feelings do you associate with assessment?

10

What should assessment do for you?

11

What touchpoints would help get you to goal?

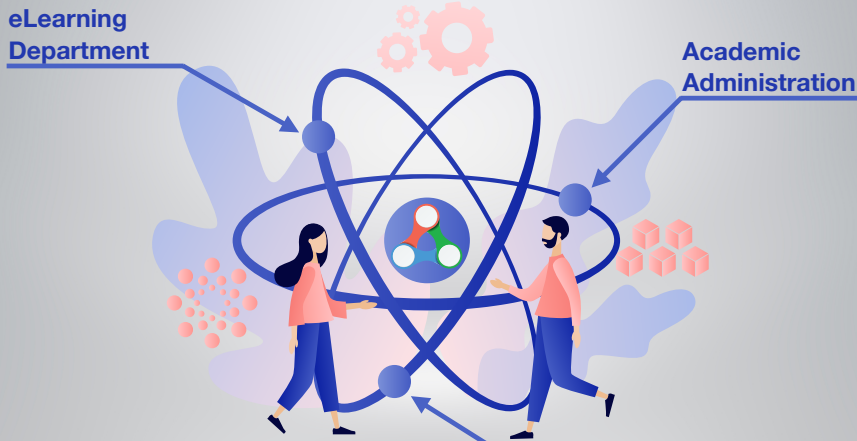

12

What barriers prevent you from reaching your goal?

The illustration shows two people, a woman and a man, walking along a path that is shaped like a large orange exclamation mark. The path is surrounded by several red 'X' marks and the word 'ERROR!' in blue text, indicating obstacles. The background is a light gray gradient.

13

eLearning Department

Academic Administration

Institutional Research

The diagram features a central blue atomic-like structure with three orbiting spheres. A woman and a man are walking towards the center. Three blue arrows point from the text labels 'eLearning Department', 'Academic Administration', and 'Institutional Research' to the central structure. The background is a light gray gradient with faint gear and cube icons.

14

CourseTalk+
Assessment Reinvented.

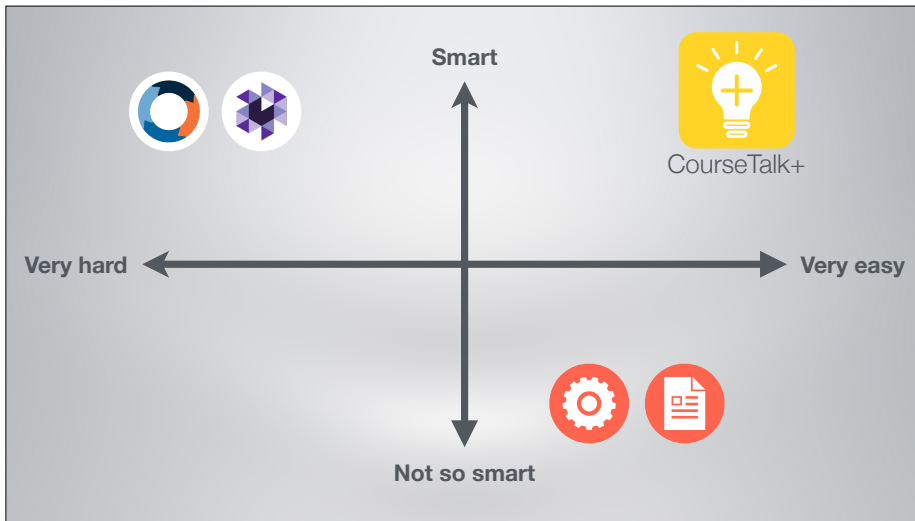

The logo consists of a yellow rounded square containing a white lightbulb with a plus sign inside. Below the logo, the text 'CourseTalk+' is written in a bold, dark gray font, and 'Assessment Reinvented.' is written in a smaller, lighter gray font below it.

15

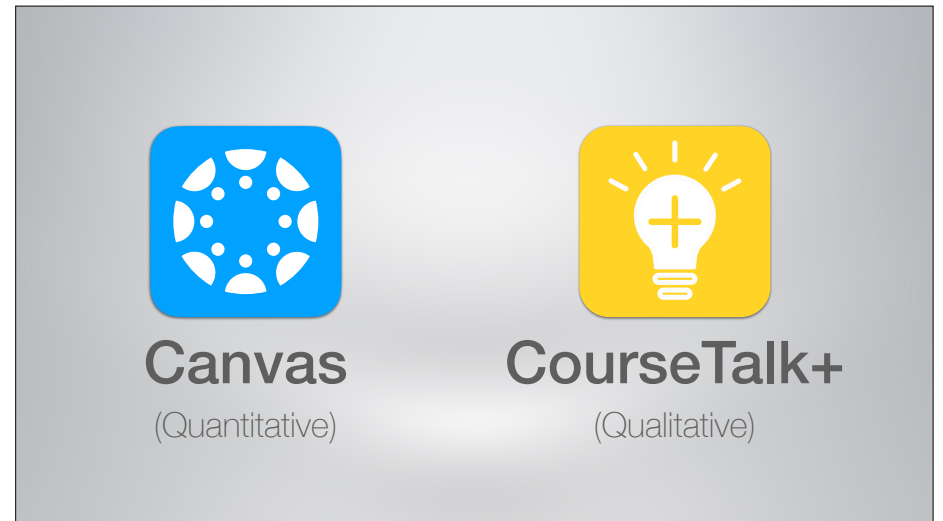

Our Assessment Endeavors

The slide features the text 'Our Assessment Endeavors' in a bold, dark gray font, centered on a light gray gradient background.

16

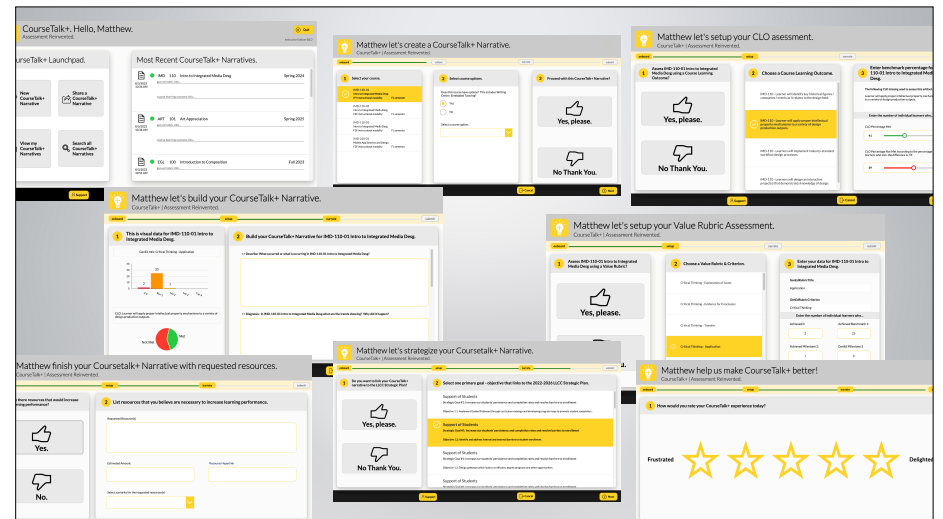

17

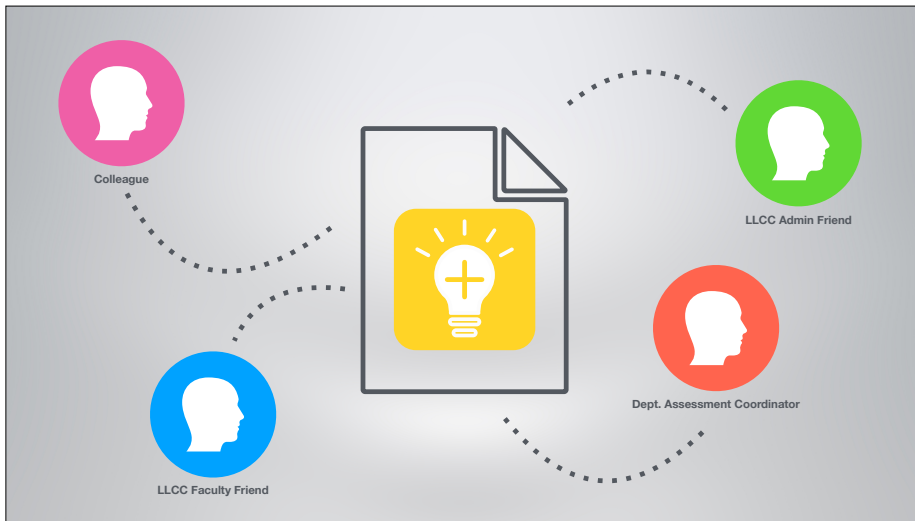

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

CourseTalk+ has also increased faculty participation in assessment as it is user-friendly.

HLC Final Report 12.13.22

25

A group of Faculty developed their own software system for academic and workforce assessment entitled CourseTalk+.

HLC Final Report 12.13.22

26

CourseTalk+ allows faculty to share and discuss their assessment efforts, what learning activities help students meet their course and program learning outcomes.

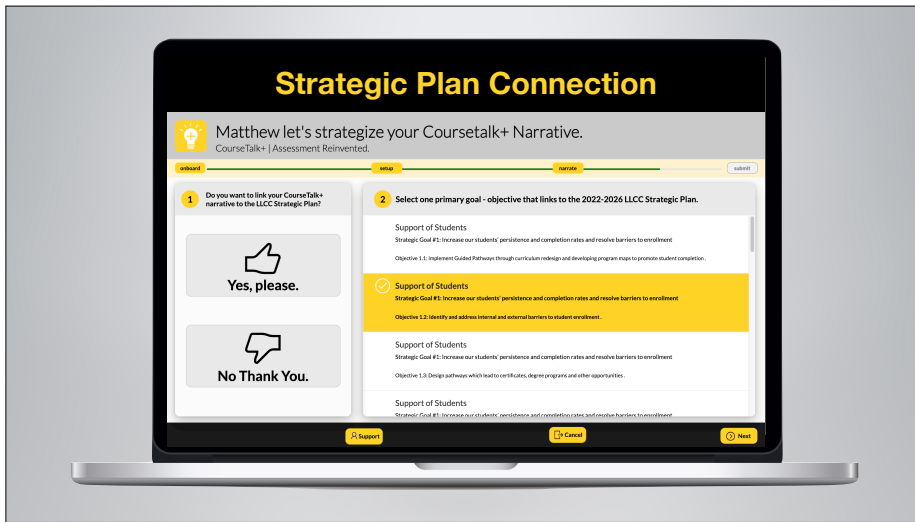

HLC Final Report 12.13.22

27

CourseTalk+ is the connection between assessment efforts, the budget process, and strategic planning.

HLC Final Report 12.13.22

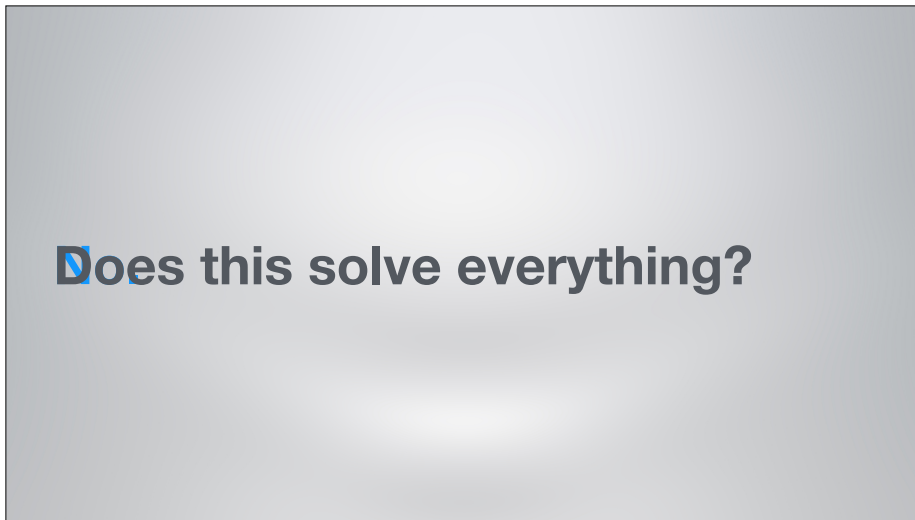

28

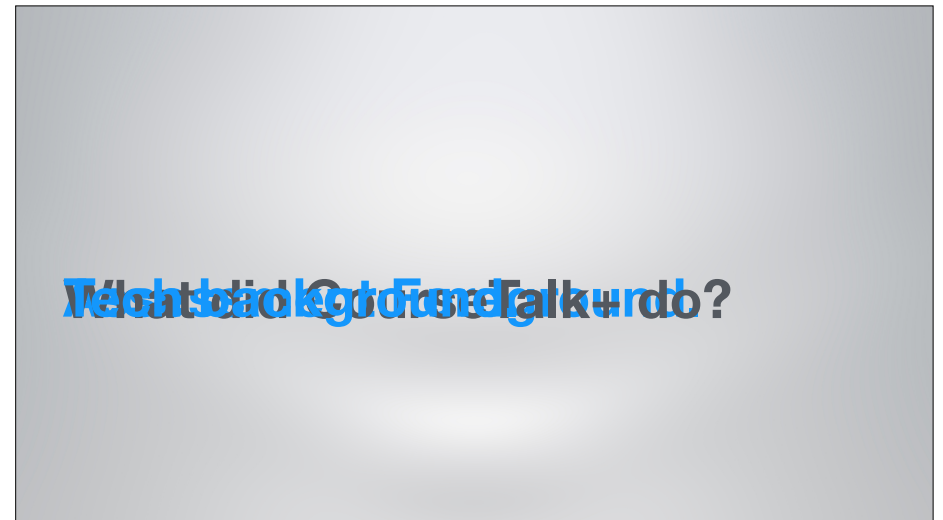

29

30

31

32

CourseTalk+
Demonstration.